

White Horse

Skillet

Vision feeling I'm {[?]
Nothing but the truth
Listen to the preacher
Warning you about the deceiver
I am the way, the truth and the life
Life

Nations raise wars and plagues
Lords' cares are set in place
Raise my kingdom
Falling great
Gonna make 'em all bow
Put it on display
Your writings will be consumed in fire
Fire

Look up in the sky
Look up in the sky
Look up in the sky
The storm is rising

I hear the earthquake
Army's shaking my name
I come for justice
Recognize your king
Do you appease our Lord when
Heaven's force comes riding on a white horse

Coming to an end
Get up off my throne before
I never judge and wage war
The armies of heaven are my command
Command
Enemies, common thieves
Kiss the sun
Get under my feet
Don't recognize me, suppress the truth
You say "Lord, Lord"
But I don't recognize you
My kingdom is ahead
Ahead

Look up in the sky
Look up in the sky
Look up in the sky
The storm is rising

I hear the earthquake
Army's shaking my name
I come for justice

Recognize your king

I'm gonna strike you down
With the sword in my mouth
Why did you ever doubt
Did you hear the words of the prophet
You should have known
I got the words of God in my mouth

Gonna strike you down
I'm gonna strike you down
With the sword in my mouth
With the sword in my mouth

I hear the earthquake
Army's shaking my name
I come for justice
Army's shaking my name
I come for justice

Gonna strike you down
I'm gonna strike you down
With the sword in my mouth
With the sword in my mouth
Didn't you hear the words of the prophet
You should have known
I got the words of God in my mouth
