You Take My Rights Away

You take my rights away You take control, no stopping You You take my rights away, I can take it See me let it qo You are in control Suffer as we grow and we say and we say we don't want to Holding nothing You take everything You're worth anything at all, anything at all You take my rights away You take control, no stopping You You take my rights away, I can take it You take my rights away You take control, no stopping You You take my rights away, I can take it You define me with your identity lose my life in You I can take, I'll take what it costs me You take my rights away You take control, no stopping You You take my rights away, I can take it You take my rights away You take control, no stopping You You take my rights away, I can take it You're gonna take my rights away You take my rights away You take control, no stopping You You take my rights away, I can take it You take my rights away You take control, no stopping You You take my rights away, I can take it

Skillet