All the love I give to you You take away And all the love you bring to me I take away Release the pain From all the love that I give Don't take away From all the love that I give Yeah, I've been through denial Yeah, I've been self-deprived What will it take... What will it take... Of my friends? Of my friends? Of my friends? Of my friends? I've been through denial I've been self-deprived What will it take to feel again? No, you can be working on me Don't take away All the love that I give Yeah, I've been through denial Yeah, I've been self-deprived What will it take... What will it take... Of my friends? Of my friends? Of my friends? Of my friends? I've been through denial Yeah, I've been self-deprived What will it take to feel again? I've been through denial I've been self-deprived What will it take to feel again? Of my friends? All the love I give Of my friends? All the love you give Of my friends? All the love I give Of my friends? All the love you give Of my friends All the love I give Of my friends

All the love you give
