

Better Way Of Thinking

Skinny Living

How could I
Be blinded by
The light that you
Have laid in front of me
Confused, confined
By evil that has
Took the time to Change what I can see

I can hear you
Calling me from deep within my soul
The words you say
I just can't let them go
I know they're right
Yeah

Since I found you
You have opened up my mind
To something new
A better way of thinking
You set me free
You have guided me to become what I've got to be
Through a better way of thinking

Searching for a teacher
Among so many creatures
That demand
I'm glad I took the time to meet you
Let my soul guide me to greet you
And hold your hand

Now I see you
Walking with me wherever I go
A path has changed but you're there
Through it all
And I'm alright
Yeah yeah

Since I found you
You have opened up my mind
To something new
A better way of thinking
You set me free
You have guided me to become what I've got to be
Through a better way of thinking

Ooooooooo Yeah Ooooooooo [x3]
Ooooooooo Ohhhhhh

Since I found you
You have opened up my mind
To something new
A better way of thinking
You set me free
You have guided me to become what I've got to be
Through a better way of thinking

Through a better way of thinking
Oohhhhhhhh yeah
