Rise

Skip The Use

This is something
Started from nothing
Am I this real?
Lost to kindness
No road to take
It scares me to death

Out my heart
Out my mind
I close my eyes
I can forgive
I can forget
I guess it's time to leave

Here come the falling leaves
I'm stuck inside my dreams
Are you?
I'm a cheap trick
Alone with me again

Am I hoping just for nothing
Am I a part of something?
This world is so straight and I'm so gay
Different but the same I love the rain

In the cold I will rise
I shed the largest of smiles
We could make it if we try
In the cold we will rise
I got everything in my mind
Expectations will die
Intuition's my grind
In the cold we will rise

Here come the falling leaves
I'm stuck inside my dreams
Are you?
I'm a cheap trick
Alone with me again

It's true we could make it
Make it if we try
Even in the cold we could rise
Nothing else but darkness all around
Even in the cold we will rise

Here come the falling leaves
I'm stuck inside my dreams
Are you?
I'm a cheap trick
Alone with me again

Here come the falling leaves
I'm stuck inside my dreams
Are you?
I'm a cheap trick
Alone with me again

Here come the falling leaves
