

Truth

sKitz Kraven

If you wanna know the truth
Then come and talk to me now
I got eighty on my wrist
Now I'm the talk of the town
I'm the truth
I'm the truth
I just left without my roof
If you wanna know the truth
Then come and look me in my eyes
I'm a legend in disguise
I'll be a legend when I die
Cuz I'm the truth
Look at me and see the proof

I just glide on em
I do the 2 step then I'm gone
I get to high on em
I take two pulls
And then I'm blown
That's how I'm cut
She wanna ask me
What's inside my cup
I said your luck
So take a sip baby
See what you got in store
I'll make a private school virgin
Quickly turn to a whore
I'll make a mute from Colorado
Start to scream give me more
And that's for sure
Pop a molly while I'm sippin liquor
Just give me head
But promise me
You will not head for the door
I love you baby
But you won't hear me
Say that often
The people saying I'm a don
All the way from Boston
I never lost
I pay the cost
So proceed with caution
I heard her ass from Calabasas
But those tits from Austin

If you wanna know the truth
Then come and talk to me now
I got eighty on my wrist
Now I'm the talk of the town
I'm the truth
I'm the truth
Then come and look me in my eyes
I'm a legend in disguise
I'll be a legend when I die
Cuz I'm the truth

Blue face hunnids
Stackin taller than toddlers
Half these bitches call me daddy
Knowin I'm not their father
I'm too selfish for a child
Plus I party too wild
I pop a bean to start my day
Then snort a line to run miles
I'm like Forrest Gump walkin
Cuz my pockets obese
I took a break from killing rappers
Just to hop on the beat
Don't tell me shit
Come suck this dick
Before you suck on my feet
I'm a dirty motha fucka
Someone get me some bleach
I tell the truth
Even when I lie
Don't act too surprised
These rappers faker than a maniquin
Take off your disguise
Look in my eyes
And you can see
That I'm a one of a kind
Fantastic
I bet you'll look
But bet you won't find

If you wanna know the truth
Then come and talk to me now
I got eighty on my wrist
Now I'm the talk of the town
I'm the truth
I'm the truth
Then come and look me in my eyes
I'm a legend in disguise
I'll be a legend when I die
Cuz I'm the truth
