Dummy

Skizzy Mars

Hey Dummy, I think I love you dummy
I think about you only, I think I love you dummy
Hey dummy, hey dummy

Aye, hey dummy, you laughin' at my jokes and they ain't even funny
Make me wanna stay when I always been runnin'
No's turn to maybes as nights turn to mornings
She love me for me she don't care about no money
But I still bought everything that you wanted
French martinis she get tipsy in Turks
She at love how we never argue we have discussions
You're beautiful, that's in and out
And we don't gotta rush we can feel it out
I think I love you, hear me out
Back to your place club clearin' out
Told your friends about me and they were skeptical
Then they met me and knew we were special
I had to earn your trust and I did that
Just wanna hear you say it back

Hey Dummy, I think I love you dummy
I think about you only, I think I love you dummy
Hey dummy, hey dummy

Watch out, I'm blurred eyed honest
Relax I know it's a front
On God, we're clever and polished
It's okay I know what I want

You warming up to me I can see it on your face
Last call here we takin' it back to my place
Night can't end I'm just hopin' that we blast off
Lean in for a kiss you taking my Yankee cap off
Was a Rolling Stone I'm feeling the temptations
Words unsaid I'm lost in your translations
Angelic aura your energy so sacred
Don't know how to say this, I like to see you naked
In school to be a therapist you really love to sing
I used to say I love you but just found out what it means
Aperol spritz's this time will be different
You startin' to slur your words but I'm hearing what you sayin'
We both gotta be up but I'm losin' track of time
You smell like Baccarat girl I wanna make you mine
The world stand still when I'm with you the city's frozen
Can't let this go unspoken

Hey Dummy, I think I love you dummy
I think about you only, I think I love you dummy
Hey dummy, hey dummy
Hey dummy
