

Pro Bad Decision Maker

Skizzy Mars

Uber SUVs, we used to ride around the city streets
Only 6 of us, but we would pull up like we 50 deep
If you wanna hang with us, you got to bring some drugs at least
Life obscene, pull up make a scene like its Steve McQueen
Flights Atlantis, the drip outlandish
I just spent 10 racks and Saks fifth and the standard
I ain't ever ask to be this way, I ain't plan it
It starts with good intentions, I end up doing damage
Look I'm gone tell you how it ends before it even starts
I'm gone have to make amends after I break your heart
I'm gone flirt with all your friends and then we break apart
If our story was a play, it'd be a tragedy
There's a reason why my exes all still mad at me
And that's another love I killed, another casualty
How'd this thing go from a blessing to catastrophe?
It's a travesty, (I can't help it)

I'm a professional bad decision maker
(I know I broke your heart but I love you regardless)
Professional bad decision maker
(Know the end is the hardest, wish I could restart it)
Professional bad decision maker
(Wish that I could be honest, I love you regardless)
Professional bad decision maker, yeah, I'm a professional bad decision maker

They should write a movie bout the shit that we did
Deviated septums from the drugs that we did
You'd think I'd learn from my past but I'm a creature of habit
We had so much going for us man, what happened? It's tragic
My girl is a savage, bad influences all around me
Drunk at bagatelle, all drunk, my table is rowdy
Had to let go of Ali, I regret if I'm honest
I'm draped in designer, said I needed the one then I found her
Now she's back in Portland, had to say this shit it's important
I ruin everything I love, man this shit is like torture
Sorry that you had to deal with it
Rehashing old wounds, still won't let you heal with it
Yo you hear this shit?
Skizzy back on his shit again
5k for the fit again, fucked up at the Wynn again
Me and my dogs the same like a synonym
It's ridiculous, (I can't help it)

I'm a professional bad decision maker
(I know I broke your heart but I love you regardless)
Professional bad decision maker
(Know the end is the hardest, wish I could restart it)
Professional bad decision maker
(Wish that I could be honest, I love you regardless)
Professional bad decision maker, yeah
I'm a professional bad decision maker
