

She leaned over and she winked so nicely
She's a pisces, perfect, she might be
You look hot but you sound so icy
You look hot but you sound so icy
You look hot but you sound so
Icy

She told me time is of the essence
So open up your mind like presents
Told me count your blessings
Babe but we living, just kind of reckless
Drink a lot, smoke a lot, next morning can't recollect shit
Yeah I'm kind of selfish
All that bullshit I spew I need to shelve it
She like it cause you think it's hip, pelvis
And now she got me all shook up, Elvis

She get mad that my swag so high up
Ass forward, I'm too fly for passports
Livened up, tangled up like this cashmere
Head spinning so I'm searching for a cab yeah
I feel the wrath of this path that we're taking
I sew my mouth shut might as well tape it
Anything you wanna build we can make it
That's what we said, now lies, all dead
Now her eyes all red, she been crying
And I'm all fed up, I've been dying
And me, I'm were supposed to be the backbone
But shit ain't been the same since I got back home
It's romance, I thought I loved her
But it's romance, no one above her
Girl lets go dance, and when our time is up
Let's hold hands, cause you my lover

I don't know what'll happen in twenty-four I'ma devour this jack like twenty-four
And when she mad she can tower like twenty-four
Feed you, and I'm scared crawling on the floor

It's romance, I thought I loved her
It's just romance, no one above her
Lets go dance, and when our time is up girl
Let's hold hands, cause you my lover

It's romance, I thought I loved her
It's just romance, no one above her
Lets go dance, and when our time is up baby
Let's hold hands, cause you my lover

It's romance, yeah it's romance
