

Just want to know you're faded
Mhm, yeah

They, say that I'm twisted but I, could really care
Less you, say that I'm numb but girl, honestly I don't feel shit
You say, you ain't worried but I, see that you're scared yeah
I just want to know you're faded. What the hell you waiting for?
Tell your girls be patient
Stop acting like a baby, girl
We killing in our 20's, sacrifice our 80's
And I know this shit feels ancient, and I know you don't feel safe but girl
Tonight just be complacent, I want to see you faded
You deserve to feel amazing
So please don't let me face this
Young and semi-famous, told you love its overrated
You got a way with persuasion
Listen to your story

I want to know you're faded, faded, faded
I want to know you're faded, faded, faded
I want to know you're faded, faded, faded
I want to know you're faded, faded, faded

You got all the looks, but you lackin' the confidence
We just be drinking, the fuck is a tolerance?
Music so loud we been hollering, man I'm so tired of it
Man I'm so tired of it
Just acknowledge it
Its like a beast we created, no stopping it
Baby just listen, ain't nothing different
I know it all baby. Skizzy's the mission
Imma keep chugging, you can keep sipping
Every night we die, its how we been living
The days are long, the nights are endless
The girls are rude, the doors pretentious
There's something about you, Mixed with this 1942
That got me tripping, and this henny got me flipping, so I'm off the wall
Chasing you around, trying to gas you up
I don't give a fuck, They can laugh at us
They don't go as hard as we do, We in for a ride girl, fasten up Pops don't like me. Why would he?
Baggy skinny jeans and a APC hoodie

Lets get higher than we ever were
Look around, girl there's clouds everywhere
Lets do it now, girl we won't wait
And if you don't like it, then we won't stay. [x2]
