Skizzy Mars

When I woke up they just told me what had happened
And all I really cared about was rapping
You smoke and then you drink
Or you drink and then you smoke
But either way you got your shoes on when you wake up on your mattress
Damn, I'm tired of acting
Kids in my city lives are vapid
We resort to Patrick Bateman reenactments
You love it then you hate it or you hate it then you love it
Either way you going to do it cause none of us are above it
Yeah, I think I think too much
Well, I'm going to stop thinking
I think I drink too much
I ain't going to stop drinking
I'm going to keep doing what I shouldn't do
You only live once, so fuck it and fuck you
If we fucking, I'll come through
Baby, what you giving up?
I told her I'm that bad boy you been looking for
Not really, but you sexy as hell
Okay, I'm a nice guy, you should stick with us

Smoking cigarettes, I got no regrets
I'm a boss man, they just don't know it yet
And what we doing my city is not thinking
Just do it, it's not get, it's just you
By ourselves, we been doing the same shit forever
Well, let's start doing the same shit together
Yeah, things change when you end up acquainting
So let's keep doing the same shit
Let's keep doing the same shit

She told me, "life is short, you should live it up"
I told her, "I'm the shit, you should stick with us"
I called Stoy when they had me pissing in a cup
Then I quit until 4/20 I was in the cut
I got the title, and money comes with the title
Had my parents at my Shakespeare recitals
Then my rap shows where I'm screaming "fuck 'em all"
And I'm looking at my dad, that nigga singing along
I got my whole fam with me
A couple tens with me
A couple friends with me
We high on the Jitney
Yeah, I want someone to think I'm someone
To point me out in the crowd, to wave at me in the clouds
Never really gave a fuck about my education
So consider this my academic resignation
Real man lives life without hesitation
No trepidation
That's why we elevated

Smoking cigarettes, I got no regrets
I'm a boss man, they just don't know it yet
And what we doing my city is not thinking
Just do it, it's not get, it's just you
By ourselves, we been doing the same shit forever

Well, let's start doing the same shit together
Yeah, things change when you end up acquainting
So let's keep doing the same shit

Detrimental fantasies
Living life with negligence
When I look back and reminisce
I do it with an emphasis
Yeah, this is my prime
So I'm going to do what I want
Cause this life is mine
And all I see is
White bitches with two pieces like pop-eyed chicken
Jack and Ginger through the same straws is what I'm sippin'
The whole game is changing
That's what I witness
Let's hurt ourselves [x4]
Either that or somebody else
Things change when you end up acquainted
And you can't keep doing the same shit
Life is a journey
And most of us don't finish it
I'm just happy to be living it
Things change when you end up acquainting
So let's keep doing the same shit
