I say sin, you say full
I say baby
Go ahead and do your thing
You say hell I say oh
You say fallen but I still hear that angel sing

Escape your fate
Be anything you want to be
Escape your fate. Now!
Escape your fate
Destroy your given destiny
Escape your fate. Loud!

You say taste, I say less you say easy
And we raise our glasses high
I say break. you say down
I say darkness but my halo is on fire
Just because you're not paranoid doesn't mean that they're not out to get yo u

Escape your fate
Be anything you want to be
Escape your fate. Now!
Escape your fate
Destroy your given destiny
Escape your fate. Loud!

I say high, you say heels
I say party come on give it all you got
You say kill I say gore you say never. Go on Give it your best shot

Escape your fate
Be anything you want to be
Escape your fate. Now!
Escape your fate
Destroy your given destiny

I say skin. You say deep
I say evil. Try to not act so surprised
You say death. I say wish

Escape your fate
Be anything you want to be
Escape your fate.
