

In Another Life

Skold

To rise, you gotta fall, in love

I'm punch drunk and ugly, pushers will get pushed
I pick amongst the picky and keep at least 2 in the bush

I've danced with the devil and sang love songs to a whore
I've seen starships on fire but I'm always wanting more

Don't tell me you had nothing but pure intentions
Don't tell me I should try to understand

In Another Life, Maybe
In Another Life, Baby

I have confessed my indiscretions on my way to war
I gave it all to not come back again
But I am still here wanting more

Don't tell me you had nothing but pure intentions
Don't tell me I should try to understand

In Another Life, Maybe
In Another Life, Baby

Don't look down, don't look down

In Another Life, Maybe

To rise, you gotta fall, in love

In Another Life, In Another Life
In Another Life, In Another Life
In Another Life, In Another Life
In Another Life
