

Kill Yourself

Skold

Things you wish you'd never seen
Places that you never should have been
People that you wish you'd never met
Promises you knew you would regret

So all the suffering's for nothing
The sacrifice in vain
And all this pain amounts to nothing
Go on and kill yourself

Hopes and dreams you wish you never had
How could it feel so good if it was bad
Chances that you knew you shouldn't take
Hearts you know you couldn't help but break

So all the suffering's for nothing
The sacrifice in vain
All this pain amounts to nothing
Go on and kill yourself

Suffocate in first world hate
Suffocate in first world hate

So all the suffering's for nothing
The sacrifice in vain
And all this pain amounts to nothing
Go on and kill yourself
