

Please Remain Calm

Skold

I saw the prophet grab a pen and scribble on the wall
I knew the legend took a stand just so he could fall

This is only the beginning, this wasn't meant to last
This is only the beginning, we're going nowhere fast

Please Remain Calm

So be as special as you are, be unbelievable
I'll be here crying in the rain, remaining cynical

This is only the beginning, this wasn't meant to last
This is only the beginning, we're going nowhere fast

Please Remain Calm

Blind words, speak of understanding, Go as you are The shade falls, where you leave them hanging, so good so far

This is only the beginning, this wasn't meant to last
This is only the beginning, we're going nowhere fast

This is only the beginning, we're going nowhere fast

Please Remain Calm
