

Ravenous

Skold

You think you know exactly what I want
You think you know my answer even when I say you don't
You think you know exactly what I need
You think you should try harder when I say you can't succeed

You made me throw it all away
You made me fall to pieces
And then you ask if I'm ok
Well not today, not today, not today

Ravenous - I didn't break I was always broken
Ravenous - I might be lost but I've not forgotten
Ravenous, Ravenous - Ravenous, Ravenous

All that's beautiful must fade
And all that's strong will slip away
You're making memories today, my friend
And today's not over

You think you know how everything should be
You think you know my problem and what would be best for me
You think you are the first and you're the last
You think you're something new but you're a ghost from my past

You made me throw it all away
You made me fall to pieces
And then you ask if I'm ok
Well not today, not today, not today

Ravenous - I didn't break I was always broken
Ravenous - I might be lost but I've not forgotten
Ravenous, Ravenous - Ravenous, Ravenous

All that's beautiful must fade
And all that's strong will slip away
You're making memories today, my friend
And today's not over

Ravenous - I didn't break I was always broken
Ravenous - I might be lost but I've not forgotten
Ravenous, Ravenous - Ravenous, Ravenous
