

The Oldest Profession

Skold

I believe what goes around will come right back around
I believe what comes around will knock you to the ground

Hey DJ, play that record now, Hey DJ, play it loud

I thought you were the one, but I was mistaken
Guess I was wrong
That's the price I pay, hey
I thought you were the one
But it was all transaction
Guess I was wrong
It was just the oldest profession in the world
The oldest profession in the world

I believe a second chance is just a second chance to fail
I believe the everything is black beyond the pale

Hey DJ, play that record now, Hey DJ, play it loud

I thought you were the one, but I was mistaken
Guess I was wrong
That's the price I pay, hey
I thought you were the one
But you were all transaction
Guess I was wrong
That was just the oldest profession in the world
The oldest profession in the world
The oldest profession in the world

Thought you were the one, but I was mistaken
Guess I was wrong
That's the price I pay, hey
I thought you were the one
But she were all transaction
Guess I was wrong
That was just the oldest profession in the world
