

Sunshine

Skott

A simple thing could make me turn
A simple burn
Emotion undetected
I used to run with your concerns
I'd be on time
I'd be what you expected

It's not a broken heart if you feel at all
So do you feel it calling my name?
I know it's warm and safe
Being locked away
But will you meet me out in the rain?
And maybe

We let the ceiling cave in
Let the sun shine, let the rain in
No point in hesitating
Soak it in

So busy, longing, waiting
Dreaming big can be overrated
Don't make it complicated
Just let it in

It's like we're only wasting time
We're running blind
We're searching for perfection
The only thing that comes to mind
And all I had to find
Was you in my reflection

It's not a broken heart if you feel at all
So do you feel it calling my name?
I know it's warm and safe
Being locked away
But will you meet me out in the rain?
And maybe

We let the ceiling cave in
Let the sun shine, let the rain in
No point in hesitating
Soak it in

So busy, longing, waiting
Dreaming big can be overrated
Don't make it complicated
Just let it in

Just let it in

We let the ceiling cave in
Let the sun shine, let the rain in
No point in hesitating
Soak it in

So busy, longing, waiting
