

I've been in the streets from a teenager, tryna make paper
I ain't no stranger, all I know is danger
You've been with me by my side like a campaigner
And true I'm always right, you're my left trainer
I'm the game changer
Girl you know I'm bout to blow up any minute
I'm just praying that you don't change up
Cah they can break glass but they can't break us
And I'm gonna be a G until I can't wake up
I hustle for a better life and I ain't stopping till I get it right
So don't stress me out when I'm coming home in the middle of the night
You're always running up your mouth like you're ready for a fight
You need to chill out with the attitude
Maybe show a little gratitude cah you ain't dealing with the average dude
I'm coming over real soon
Make sure when I arrive you're in the bedroom in the right mood

You know that I've got you
You know that you've got me
Always be there
I will always be there
You know that I've got you
You know that you've got me
Always be there
I will always be there

And when I say that I'm the one and only
I mean you'll never find another like me
You can search all around the globe
To come across another nigga like me is highly unlikely
And if you never knew, now you know
Babes you're messing with a heavyweight
And all them other niggas featherweights
And they ain't getting money anyway
I be fully on my grind, niggas hesitate
I hit a nigga with the nine, make him levitate
And I appreciate the steak on my dinner plate
It's in the microwave anytime I finish late
And I know this doesn't compensate
When the weekend comes I'm gonna take you on a dinner date
You keep talking about you wanna go on holiday
Me and you run away, no phones allowed
Said you love me right now
And even if a nigga never had no money you'd still hold me down

You know that I've got you
You know that you've got me
Always be there
I will always be there
You know that I've got you
You know that you've got me
Always be there
I will always be there

You can't deny that I'm a top man
Anytime I say I'm gonna make moves, best believe it's gonna pop fam
God never put brakes on my body so I'm never gonna stop man

Tell me why these niggas think they're hard like me
Even with a telescope, God knows that you could never see another nigga like me
Two of them is like a half of me

You know that I've got you
You know that you've got me
Always be there
I will always be there
You know that I've got you
You know that you've got me
Always be there
I will always be there
