

Bad Desires

Skrizzly Adams

I'll take the chance tonight
Pull me by the teeth to feed the fire
No need to change my mind
I'm here to satisfy my bad desires

I can't control it when I'm on my own
It's just bad desires that come and they save me slow
We were eighteen yesterday when I stole your pride
'Cause the bad desires, they laughed and they looked us in the eyes

Said I've run all red lights from here to get to you
If your clock strikes nine and I'm not right next to you
Just scream at the sky and you pray that it travels through
I'm coming for you, yeah I'm coming for you
For my bad desires

I'll take the chance tonight
Pull me by the teeth to feed the fire
No need to change my mind
I'm here to satisfy your bad desires

Oh, you caught me with a smoking gun
Oh, but I ain't ever gonna change
Yeah, I'm gone with the wind like a means to my end
With you stirring up the hurricane

Said I've run all red lights from here to get to you
If your clock strikes nine and I'm not right next to you
Just scream at the sky, you pray that it travels through
I'm coming for you, yeah I'm coming for you
For my bad desires

I'll take the chance tonight
Pull me by the teeth to feed your fire
No need to change my mind
I'm here to satisfy my bad desires
Yeah, I want to feel alive
Look me in the eyes to light my fire
Yeah, you make it all alright
I'm here to satisfy your bad desires
