

Cave In

Skrizzly Adams

What do you hear when a wolf cries?
He's begging for mercy after howling at the sky
You hope there's some truth left in his lies, yeah
He's holding you back now, you can't look me in the eyes

What do you do when you got love that don't love you back?
It's like you don't hear me anymore

I cave in, I cave in
I cave in, I cave in
I think every day there's a different way
Write another end to the story
So I cave in

(Oh, why, why)

Why do we still act so surprised?
When we live in a place where we were both left behind
Despite all the reasons that we tried
Yeah, we're left in the dark where you can't look me in the eyes

What do you do when you got love that don't love you back?
It's like you don't hear me anymore

I cave in, I cave in
I cave in, I cave in
I think every day there's a different way
Write another end to the story
So I cave in

It don't feel right when you think twice
But you just can't risk it all
So you hang tight 'cause it feels like
This time it's your fault
So why am I not afraid of heights
While you look down at the fall?
Guess I'm not the one to stand up
So I'll crawl

I cave in, I cave in
I cave in, I cave in
I think every day there's a different way
Write another end to the story
So I cave in
