

Home To You

Skrizzly Adams

You let me dream with you
I come home at twelve AM
Just to be with you
I lay my aching body down
After the day is through
And give myself to you
'Cause you let me dream with you

I pray for the moment we sleep through the morning
I won't be away so long
I count down the days I won't have to wait
To see you when I get home
I'll jump through your waters on and on
To find our love's a wave that's rolling strong
Can't shake us awake, or bend till I break
Just to see you when I get home

You let me dream with you
I save every second left here
Just to be with you
It's not loneliness
It's fate that tastes too good to lose
So I give myself to you
'Cause you let me dream with you

I pray for the moment we sleep through the morning
I won't be away so long
I count down the days I won't have to wait
To see you when I get home
I'll jump through your waters on and on
To find our love's a wave that's rolling strong
Can't shake us awake, or bend till I break
Just to see you when I get home
See you when I get home

I can't stop the running, time keeps a-gunning
Baby, I think that you're my stone
Don't stop the loving, it's clear we're becoming Better as one and on our own

Yeah, you let me dream with you
I come home at twelve AM
Just to be with you
I lay my aching body down
After the day is through
And give myself to you
'Cause you let me dream with you

I pray for the moment we sleep through the morning
I won't be away so long
I count down the days I won't have to wait
To see you when I get home
I'll jump through your waters on and on
To find our love's a wave that's rolling strong
Can't shake us awake, or bend till I break
Just to see you when I get home
