

Hungover High

Skrizzly Adams

Well I don't mind if you take it back tomorrow
If you just need time to let me know

But if one thing leads to two drinks
And you're thinking you're gonna tell me you want me
Well, it's alright in the moment
'Cause we can't stop the feelings from flowing

You don't know what you got 'til you're gone
A faded mind tells the truth
And I'm right in front of you
You won't hold back from the one that you want
If your mind needed proof, girl, it's right in front of you
Ooh-ooh, yeah, I'm right in front of you

That clear in your glass got you telling me stories
It's all in the past, now that we're both right here

But if one thing leads to two drinks
And you're thinking you're gonna tell me you want me
Well, it's alright in the moment
'Cause we can't stop the feelings from flowing, yeah

You don't know what you got 'til you're gone
A faded mind tells the truth
And I'm right in front of you
You won't hold back from the one that you want
If your mind needed proof, girl, it's right in front of you
Ooh-ooh, yeah, I'm right in front of you
Ooh-ooh, yeah, I'm right in front of you

Like back sliding downhill fast
And then right out of here
If I'm buying, then we'll both crash
Hungover high in the morning
Yeah, hungover high in the morning

You don't know what you got 'til you're gone
A faded mind tells the truth
And I'm right in front of you
You won't hold back from the one that you want
If your mind needed proof, girl, it's right in front of you

You don't know what you got 'til you're gone
A faded mind tells the truth
And I'm right in front of you
You won't hold back from the one that you want
If your mind needed proof, girl, it's right in front of you
