

Now That You're Lonely

Skrizzly Adams

We're suddenly talking again
Feel like you g - g - got me but I ain't giving in
Now that you lonely
Find you standing at my door

You went and painted my bedroom black
You say that you found love but you couldn't give it back
Now that you're lonely
And your lying on the floor

All my rust turn gold
Without you
My diamonds came from stones
When I lost you
But now that you're lonely
And you can't take it anymore
Anymore

Tearing the curtains off the wall
Shed a little light on the on the reason that you called
Now that you're lonely and you can't see clear at all

All my rust turn gold
Without you
My diamonds came from stones
When I lost you
But now that you're lonely
And you can't take it anymore
Anymore
