

Rain Falls

Skrizzly Adams

Rain falls on the windshield
And I don't care anymore
Son died in my review
And I can't break anymore

We go up and down, then we circle around all over again
And you don't let go of the up and down
Then we crash to the ground all over again
Yeah, oh-oh-oh

'Cause you're all I ever wanted
Yeah, you are all I ever need
Can you still love me when am broken?
'Cause this is all I'll ever be
Yeah, this is all I'll ever be

Headlights shining outside
And I can't see anymore
Well, you got me when I go blind
And I can't see anymore

We go up and down, then we circle around all over again
And you don't let go of the up and down
Then crash to the ground all over again
Yeah, oh-oh-oh

'Cause you're all I ever wanted
Yeah, you're all I ever need
Can you still love me when am broken?
'Cause this is all I'll ever be
Yeah, this is all I'll ever be
Yeah, this is all I'll ever be
