

Too Close To Fire

Skrizzly Adams

Maybe the way
That you move me
Just shakes me, alive, I say
Maybe the heat got too strong
But you can't get enough, because
All that you want
Is best left alone
It's hard to fly by with some wings that got holes
But everything safe
Just feels so old
But you're not the one
To just do what you're told
So you

Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire
Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire
Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire

You cut me loose
When you told me, yea
To welcome the crash and burn
Cause every excuse
Keeps me reaching
But you make me wanna learn that
All that you want
Is best left alone
But who says the taste of rebellions so wrong
Cause everything safe
Just feels so old
But you're not the one to just do what you're told
So you

Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire
Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire
Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire
Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire

Can't count all the things that goes wrong
When you're sleeping with sin
We somehow get along
And you feel like the Phoenix
That called out the dawn
So I'm right here
With you, singing

Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire
Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire
Ah... ooh... ah...

You're too close to fire
Ah... ooh... ah...
You're too close to fire

You're too close to fire
