

Вона Догнала Дикий Вітер

Skryabin (Скрябін)

She's got the wild wind

She's got the wild wind

She's got the wild wind

Uh

She's got the wild wind

So many voices

I saw many voices

I call many voices

I know, you show me

No many voices

I hate many voices

And no many voices

I feel you wrong so

So many voices

I hate any voices

You've got many voices

I know you fall down

Draw many voices

I hate many voices

I feel many voices

Uh

She's got the wild wind

She's got the

So many voices

I hate many voices

I know many voices

I know you show

Call many voices

I hate many voices

I know many voices

I thought you call them

Show many voices

I hate many voices

You breathe many voices

I hate you most, though

I call many voices

You hate many voices

And hate many voices

I know you show them
