

Window Somewhere

Skullcrusher

Where I want to be
Passes through me
Sunlight pours in through a window somewhere
I watch it from my seat
A life just out of reach
I'll be forever searching

Pressed myself in
Words you wrote
Did you mean them?
Did you know?
I was standing
Behind the door
Would you notice
If I let go?
Pressed myself in
Words you wrote
Did you mean them?
Did you know?
I was standing
Behind the door
Would you notice
If I let go?
