Generation Z

SkyDxddy

There's gonna be so many people
Trying to get inside your head
Like they know better
Telling you what you should or shouldn't do
Yo fuck those people

We don't expect you to like everything we do
Were not tryna impress you
Though we know you'd like us to
We can't reach your expectations
We can't take it anymore
And if we make decisions
Based off your opinions
Who are we really living for

We're so tired
We wanna live the way we want
And we're on fire
You want us to live how we don't
So we just hope and pray
And fly to our escape
You should feel ashamed
For making us wanna run away
With someone that makes us see better days
But everybody's a critic
So we don't care what you say

If I see one more comment about how I look
I swear to God I'm gonna go crazy
My face is not a label
And my genes are not what makes me
So will someone please save me
Cause I don't think I can take this
Fabrication shows on all the pages
And society molds us 'till were faceless
And faking these emotions only shows us how broken we are Shameless to hurt each other
Yet afraid to show are own scars
And in the middle of every story
Is someone lost cold and alone
But all they need is someone to guide them
And help them find their way back home

We're so tired
We wanna live the way we want
And we're on fire
You want us to live how we don't
So we just hope and pray
And fly to our escape
You should be ashamed
Cause you make us wanna run away
With someone that makes us see better days
But everybody's a critic
So we don't care what you say

I see a lot of people up on Instagram
Always bragging about how they got money

But when I ask what they got in they heart
They start actin like I'm being funny
I know a lot of people they don't give a damn
Only want me from what they take from me
Guess we all just play a part
Now tell me who you think is lucky oh na na
Sick and I'm tired don't feel so great
Can't even say sorry I feel this way
I'm sick and tired I seal my fate
I gotta inspire to heal my pain
Don't gotta switch I just grow
Don't give a shit what you think of me no
Smoking a spliff I get lit on the low
I can't hear you bitch making hits in the yo

We're so tired
We wanna live the way we want
And we're on fire
You want us to live how we don't
So we just hope and pray
And fly to our escape
You should be ashamed
Cause you make us wanna run away
With someone that makes us see better days
But everybody's a critic
So we don't care what you say