

Fading Reflections

Skyfire

Reveries
And you thought you knew
A scenery of past, present and future
All the same, all in vain
In time you will be your own witness
What will you discover?
Shelter
Something to cover
Or madness to crave for
Die for

Face it
Reveal the secret inside
Dare it
Prevent worlds to collide
Bring focus around

Here you are now
Falling out of control
A test of your soul
Walk alone
No hiding shades
Reflection fades

Negation
The injection to collapse
Going fast, spreading wide
Breaking the system down
Stealing your crown
No actions taken
No changes made
But things will never stay the same

[Choir]: Save yourself

In time you'll see
In time you'll be
Your own enemy
