

Like A Shadow

Skyfire

Like a shadow
I follow your steps
And they're taking me to places I don't want to go
I don't wanna follow
But can't stay away from the show

Turning on, turning in
I can do it in my sleep by now
I've seen it all but can't get enough
Still craving for diversions
Reversion

Thorns in my soul
Slitting me open
Scars in my mind
Voices made me blind

So the dream begins
Into infinity
And I hear you
Speak the words
Always ever

Like a ghost of an soul in denial
Heeding on in the darkness of time
Unable to rest in peace
To reach the eternal sleep

Drinking the poison again
Optional but conceiving
Soothing but deceiving
Still craving for diversions
Riversion
