

Now wake me up and I'll follow on
And run around with these familiar faces
Discover revelation
This evanescent blue, I'll find you
This information is confirmation
That we're set to lose it all

Raise up the world
Rain down your souls

This information, this evanescent blue
Is confirmation that I know I can't be wrong
Know I can't be wrong

Satisfaction left for dead, armor for my weakened head
Separate to devotion
I recognize that weary head, nothing to be left unsaid
Never before, ever did I ever have that feeling

Rain down, pour my soul
Rain down, pour my soul

Back and forth, back and forth straight into my arms
If you're waiting for love, then don't do it alone
Back and forth, back and forth straight into my arms
Where did we go wrong?
Where did we go wrong?
So wrong
So wrong

Where did we go wrong
'Cause this has gone out of control
Where did we go wrong
'Cause this has gone out of control
