

Menace

Skyharbor

As I try and fight you
You crawl right in
You don't even care about the damage from within
And I can feel you
Under my skin
Pulling me further
Than I've ever been

Chase these lies
Closer to drifting away

Take all your demands
Put them in my hands (on fire, destroyer)
Take all of your plans
Leave them where you stand (on fire, destroyer)

I am the temptress
I am the witness (on fire, destroyer)
So come with me now

Sell your soul you feel home again
Given our lives I feel much more
Take me down to feel young again
Open your eyes you see much more

Sell your soul to the flame
And the light touch the winter
On fire, destroying

Burn with the flame

Lost without grace
You know your words
They leave an awful taste
Struggling to breathe
[] on your lips
Seem to manipulate my finger tips
Sweet lullaby of innocence

Sell your soul you feel home again
Given our lives I feel much more
Take me down to feel young again
Open your eyes see much more

Sell your soul to the flame
And your light touch the winter
Oh fire, destroying

Burn the flame
Burn the flame

You shred the wicked path
We spell your name as I cry on the soot
Breaking the silence
Trace every diversion as we could
Behold the glowing sky
The message of our past

Beware the serpents song
Flowing down the river

Crime
The temptress
Crime
The menace
Crime
The fire

Are you the destroyer?
