Blame

Skylar Stecker

I feel your eyes all over me they don't let go
So many things I wanna say I know you know
I like the way you make me feel, it's overload
The way you rock, I'm losing my control

I'm not holding my breath cuz it ain't over yet, you take it away
I'm not biting my tongue cuz the night is still young and I wanna pla y
So hey, I know she looking right this way, but all you really see is me
This is crazy

Can you blame me
You got that super power can't explain it
Used to getting what I want and I ain't changing
I want me and you so Imma take it, t-t-take it
Can you blame me

A girl like me know exactly how this gon go
You got me synching up into your tempo
All eyes on us so we gonna put on a show
And I don't care who's watching

I'm not holding my breath cuz it ain't over yet, you take it away
I'm not biting my tongue cuz the night is still young and I wanna pla
So hey, I know she looking right this way, but all you really see is
me
This is crazy

Can you blame me
You got that super power can't explain it
Used to getting what I want and I ain't changing
I want me and you so Imma take it, t-t-take it
Can you blame me

Got me feeling that déjà vu
Same time, same place been here with you before
Got me feeling that déjà vu
Same time, same place been here with you before

Can you blame me

You got that super power can't explain it
Used to getting what I want and I ain't changing
I want me and you so Imma take it, t-t-take it
Can you blame me

Don't blame me, don't blame me, what's a girl to do
Don't blame me, don't blame me, can you blame me Don't blame me, don't blame me, what's a girl to do, what's a girl to do

Don't blame me
