

Earth Sign

Skylar Stecker

I just fell in love in the club for the first time
Trynna build a home with an earth sign
Trynna be at home doing curbside
Love you on your best days
Have you on your worst nights
It's been too long since I caught myself feeling like this
Don't go making no promises I got tired of hearing that shit
Drinks on me, pour it up
I don't wanna feel sorry
In the back of the coupe
With a dude
Yeah I know that he want me
Drinks on me, pour it up
I was feelin' so sorry
Gotta text from my ex saying sorry

Yeah but you lost me
I was like Balmain he was like Huarache
You was really stunting on me now you gotta watch me drop into the drop top
Do it like it's top speed
Bust down canary's, you saw that
Could've had the world but it's all bad
Now I get a text and a call back
And all of that cus

I just fell in love in the club for the first time

Hopped in the Uber with my rider
Bag calling so we're always Pulling all-nighters
Really had to get it for survival
Now I'm flooded out in LAX on arrival
Trynna beat some pussy homicidal
Pretty girls that want to freak with me without no title
This is the type of life that plenty of us would have died for Heart breaking slowly we should put it on vinyl
