Baby, I been puttin' in the effort
Sending over cards and different sweatshirts
I see you in my dreams, in my future

But damn, that makes me really wanna kiss you
I know if you were here I would deliver

Damn, I be like ooh
Crazy but only for you
Doin' things I never do
Damn, I be like ooh
They want me, but I want you
No one be there like you do

Oh boy, I gotta question, question, question, question
Do you feel da tension, tension, tension, tension
I know I keep you guessin', guessin', guessin', guessin'
But you ain't gotta question, question, question, question

Baby, take a flight I'll send the info
Pick you up and show you what I'm into
I sorry if I'm loosin' my composure
Tell me you're fantasy's, think they align
Me on your body and you up on my mine
I know I'm a tease, but I'll let you decide

Crazy but only for you
Doin' things I never do

They want me, but I want you
No one be there like you do
