

Feverish

Skylark

What can I remember, of a time passed by?
Hidden kind leaves, batted from the rain
Deep inside my mind, old images flash of light and...
I don't wanna to be insane, I don't wanna to be insane

Voices from the trees, without mercy follow me now
In this flames like burning hell
Don't tell me "I believe in you"!

I am falling for you I am a ghost in this shell
For you I am falling now and you catch my soul

This is my life this is my broken line this is my fate
I never wanna explain this world
Inside my empty side, inside my mind
I'm just a breath in the wind for you

While I feel your lies, thousand demons start my cries
Never leave my sins, never gone away
Just ethereal meal, is created from your lips no!
I don't wanna to be insane, I don't wanna to be insane

Bugs with thousand legs
Are my dresses and my food now
Up the blade of ended jail
Don't tell me "I believe in you"!
