

Satan Arise

Skylark

White Warrior:

Last night in heaven, ride down to this hell. I've been caught from cries and sorrow.

Thinking about all the people you killed. I don't want to die by your hand.

Living in the dark in a sign of the priest. I can feel my body drifting.

I'll never return in this age of the beast. All I hear is desperation.

White Warrior: Break the time to Neverland.

The Divine Gladiators: Satan will come, Satan will get you.

White Warrior: Reality is behind... then Satan arise.

White Warrior:

Crossing the shadows on the Lucifer shoulders. Sea of pain is near to catch you.

Blowing the energy to the Evil Lady. All my dreams are trying to fade.

The cross will make you blind!

Satan: I'm satan.
