

The Guardian Angel

Skylark

In front of the dark church of Heaven we are searching for the truth...

My mind is blind, I'm going insane...
I can't pronounce even the Holy Name.

Don't push your brain, Don't waste your time and I will show you the Sacred Sign

But I, among the Mankind I cry, throwing my bad dreams
from my mind away, until my weapons are ready to stay along the Lucifer's Lane

My strength has gone, my road is dark, the final battle is going to start

The fire burns, the Angels pray, the Eternal Flame rise and shine again

'cause I, among the Mankind I cry, pushing your bad
dreams from your mind away, until my faith will protect our game,
to join the warm of the Flame

'cause I'm the Guardian Angel, so lost to take control...

The sound of time is watching you and now I really come:
my Guardian Angel

'cause I'm the Guardian Angel,
I'm lost to take control...
My only mission is to save the world, so I'm ready to give my soul!
