

Ladies

Skyline

waking up is fine, but in the night it makes me cry, can't catch my life everything seems right, but deep inside emptiness lies, naivety dies and I feel like other ladies when they guess they have no time don't wanna watch those stupid movies I try to change those stereotypes everyday's the same, I feel so tired from dusk till dawn, it gets me down I waste my days as years go by in vain go out of my mind, leave it behind it's inside of me
