

When the evening comes and the temperature cools
You open your window
Oh Jenny you fool
Why waste a breath if you won't understand
Hell...
I'll see you in Disneyland

Liars lie and haters hate
Player plays and fate is fate
The fact remains that's how it is
First the crack and then the wiz

Take life itself it's in your hands
I'll have my way you know who I am
Wiggle and squirm turn white and stop
Your fear will chase with every drop

Liars lie and haters hate
Player plays and fate is fate
The fact remains that's how it is
First the crack and then the wiz

Ssssh, be quiet
Hush he said
The demon is alive
The demon wants you dead

Because killing is sex
Hush he said, Killing is sex

The lust for life's the lust for blood
I love to watch your final knot
Government kills so why shouldn't I
Zero one zero and eye for an eye

Morals and scruples
Conscious and doubt
And simply aroused cut your eyes out
Liars lie and haters hate
Player plays...

Ssssh, be quiet
Hush he said
The demon is alive
The demon wants you dead

Because killing is sex
Killing is sex
Hush he said
Killing is sex
