

June 1983 - she was 17, all night lap dancing
I offered her money to possess
Money to possess her body

Handcuffed her forced her into my
Sedan and drove out to Muldoon
Baby, I pulled out the gun to have Pulled out the gun to have some fun

You better (what?)
You better
You better

You better run, run, run - you better run, run, run
Before I hunt you down, better run around, better hunt you down
Bitch, you won't be found on the frozen ground

Better run, run, run - you better run, run, run
Before I hunt you down, better run around, better hunt you down
Bitch, you won't be found on the frozen ground of the Matanuska Valley

That's why they call me the butcher
They call me the Butcher Baker, yeah
We could do it, but it's gonna
It's gonna cost you some money, yeah

Eklutna Annie was not as lucky
Not as lucky as Paulson Cindy
A Ruger Mini-14 in hand
A Piper Super Cub up in the sky

Naked fear
(You better) hunter's game
(You better) no one knows
(You better) knows your name

(You better run, run, run) Naked fear
(You better run, run, run) Hunter's game
(You better run, run, run) No one knows
(You better run, run, run)

You better run, run, run - you better run, run, run
Before I hunt you down, better run around, better hunt you down
Bitch, you won't be found on the frozen ground

You better run, run, run - you better run, run, run
Before I hunt you down, better run around, better hunt you down
Bitch, you won't be found on the frozen ground of the Matanuska Valley

Better run around, better hunt you down, better run around
Better run around, better hunt you down, better run around
Better run around, better hunt you down, better run around
Better run around, better hunt you down, better run around
Better run around, better hunt you down, better run around
