

Humble Brag

Skyzoo

Thirteen, Henny on the back of my breath, I ain't buy it though
Tucked it in the back of the steps, you know how Skyler go
Fast forward I still pour it all through the barrio
Word to all the condos coming to tell us vamanos
Backseat of my Jeep, swing an episode
Double parked in front the park but bet it's left alone
Bet I still move like they not here
While knowing they got here, by playing off our fear, so I'm where I be more Mookie verses the Chandlers and Ross'
With Strike Dunhams that'll hand to hand you endorsements
Or they'll hand you a coffin, the same way that I can hand you a portrait Swear to God it's like my hand is a God send Word to God how I handle the guarded, more arm in arm
And armed with the same hand that I pour with God, praise due to the smaller apartments
And running to stay up in them regardless
Humble brag, humble brag

Know what we all here fo'
How I'm seated, no I could never get lost here though, nah
But keep it all fair yo
How I'm seated I'll probably be in their cross hairs though, wow
Humble brag be what come with it, right
Humble brag be what come with it, right
Humble brag be what come with it, right
So humble brag til we done with it

Riddle me like how much a buck worth, to cut work
We gonn' be aight like a Duckworth, it's just work, how much your luck wort h?
From where it mean more if you buck first You're up first and countering on whoever jumps first
Innocent like opening the hydrant
Giving in like opening and firing, spirited like hoping you survive it
Giving in like knowing if they got it
You'll take it and leave it because they know that you're divided
That's word to every cafe popping, with a WiFi option
While my mans is like yo I'm just tryna provide my product
It'll be alright, same ones who need a WiFi log in Same ones that keep it booming when they're outside copping
Money taught us that all of this is a crash course
And literally gift you with everything that you asked for A ribbon around it, same one they cut when them condos went up
And they asked you what you mad for, right?
Humble brag

Know what we all here fo'
How I'm seated, no I could never get lost here though, nah
But keep it all fair yo
How I'm seated I'll probably be in their cross hairs though, wow
Humble brag be what come with it, right
Humble brag be what come with it, right
Humble brag be what come with it, right
So humble brag til we done with it

The same one to be ignored
Same four corners that you couldn't see before

Same ones running up and down it, back and forth
Same ones you're at war with over the allure right?

With all this money that we can make
Why don't y'all just lead the way?
Do you wanna get money or not, do ya?
Do you wanna get money or not, do ya?
