Nodding Off

Skyzoo

And life is all about a bluff
It's almost like playing cards, like
I'd say it's moreso than um, I'd say moreso than I'd say shooting dice
You know, because, you could change dices and stuff
But they can't, they hard, they can't mold
You know what I mean you just shooting, you shooting
Cards could bend, cards could bend like life
Us and life, we can bend
And even though we had a bad hand, that don't mean we gon lose the fucking g ame

Nod to it, nod to it, nod to it
Go ahead and not to it
I swear all the content is relatable, I swear
Just let it play it's course
Okay

Winning be the only thing they know you for
And then everything changes like you Okafor
And you playing your role and keeping hold of what they hold you on Remind 'em what they know until they know you gone
Like do believe it, let your memory lock in Like when locking the door soon as top become the topic
And she take all that off seeing how roomy the drop is
And I just want you all to feel the aura of the logic
We can keep this shit honest, we all about a profit
And I'm all kinda in love with the shit, like it's a problem
'Cause I seen how that problem, stood up on top of problems
Down for the count, I counted down and said "yo I'm in"
Til I'm in, a 911 Porsche without a 911 call
Round my way they go together like you rocking up a yard
And if the topic that I'm on isn't quote on quote real
Then at least Apollo here to get a kill
And you can still nod to it

Go ahead and nod to it
Nod to it
Go ahead and nod to it
You can still nod to it
Nod to it
Go ahead and nod to it
Nod to it
You can still nod to it
Nod to it
Go ahead and nod to it
Nod to it
You can still nod to it
Nod to it
Go ahead and nod to it

Swear it's like I'm Bleek Gilliam on the bridge hitting the trumpet
Playing "Sing Soweto" in repetition for comfort
Know I sing for payrolls, but stuck on how you dub it
Like if ever you should share this and it puts out a discussion
There's a part of me that wants it to be everything that matters
Then there's part of me that grew up where you win off whipping batter
But this don't even matter, like why should we pretend

But if it came back up, then how should we begin?
In the thought of the greatest, with a story as vital
But when you get to aiming then they say you hit your rivals
I'm just aiming at making this shit here last forever
'Least a Wu X, and returning a DM from a joint that's Lisa Wu sketch
Do it how they taught us when they had us in the pocket
Said the aim will come in handy when they get away from logic
If the topic that I'm on isn't quote on quote real
Then at least Apollo here to get the kill
And you can still nod to it

Go ahead and nod to it
Nod to it
Go ahead and nod to it
You can still nod to it
Nod to it, nod to it, nod to it
You can still nod to it
Go ahead and nod to it
Nod to it
Go ahead and nod to it
You can still nod to it
Nod to it
Go ahead and nod to it
Nod to it
You can still nod to it
