

Chasing Ghosts

Slaine

I never thought it would be you
To make me feel the tug of the knife
Coming out my gut with you pulling it out
No, I thought you were the love of my life
And you were, it was not a dream
What we had was real, a beautiful thing Beautiful souls, we both are We both had come so far, just Two people on a path from the wreckage of the past, seconds from a crash the

Putting pieces back in our lives, at the same time, strange how we matched t hen
Friendship turned to understanding, turned to love, then to passion Shaded from the rain, I related to your pain more than you can imagine Back then, I could just get lost in your eyes
I saw that you were lost in the mind
Two lives crossed, intertwined, true love is such an awesome design
Created by the fates and we followed on the road
But tomorrow's never old, and you disappeared
Now I'm looking back where we coulda went and lost it in time
There's a hole from the bottom of my soul to the top 'cause it's ripped in h alf
I couldn't understand how forever love could ever make a shift this fast
You came back like the Ghost of Christmas Past Say you love me still, then disappear again just as soon as Christmas passed

Chasing ghosts
Always the ones that I love the most
Where did you go and hide?
Have no fear, I'm right here
On the other side
Take my hand, fly away
Come with me

It's been months I've spending, revolving but still evolving a little
At a time with this jigsaw puzzle, puzzled like I'm solving a riddle
I don't wanna get high over this shit, so I keep God in the middle God in the middle, 'cause the devil's sitting on the fucking wall with the f iddle
And he plays the song that'll take me out sadly, that's just the truth for m e
Everything that ever mattered to me, drugs took ruthlessly
I've been sober six years now, still remember how this shit used to be But couldn't see in real time that that's what took you from me
Holy ghost, holy ghost, try to tell me something close to the truth
But the lies you would hide deep inside stole me most, stung me most
You and I, we were both on the same oath that one time
Now our stunning dose of reality is coming close to a close
And I'm only stunting growth
Don't suppose that you'll change any time soon 'cause you already went and c hose what you chose Chose what you chose, and if anybody knows how this goes
I was on that road, every low to my battered soul
Guess you gotta know for yourself what you gotta know
I just hope that you make it out alive
But in the meantime, I'll be right here waiting for you on the other side

Chasing ghosts
Always the ones that I love the most
Where did you go and hide?
Have no fear, I'm right here
On the other side
Take my hand, fly away
Come with me

Chasing ghosts
Always the ones that I love the most
Where did you go and hide?
Have no fear, I'm right here
On the other side
Take my hand, fly away
Come with me
