

Gravity

SLANDER

Nobody else knows you like I know you
I see through your lies to what's there underneath
With all the endless nights that we been through
To feel your touch, feel your fire for me to believe

I got tired of waiting on somebody
Someone who can make me feel the same
As the way I felt when I was there were you
No, this isn't just because I'm lonely
No, this feeling isn't gonna fade
Really, there ain't nothing else that I can do

I feel the weight of your
Gravity, pulling me closer
Losing my sanity, I wanna come over
'Cause your love
Is like living on pins and needles
You are nothing like other people, your
Gravity's pulling me closer

Pulling me closer
Pulling me closer
Gravity, pulling me closer
Gravity, pulling me closer
Gravity, pulling me closer
Gravity

Pulling me closer
Pulling me closer...
Pulling me closer
Pulling me closer

Closer

Pulling me closer
Gravity, pulling me closer
Pulling me closer

Push and you pull 'cause the tension is worth it
I'm barely breathing when I got you close
Such a disaster but I call it perfect
Here in the arms, I feel alright, right home

I got tired of waiting on somebody
Someone who can make me feel the same
As the way I felt when I was there were you
No, this isn't just because I'm lonely
No, this feeling isn't gonna fade
Really, there ain't nothing else that I can do

I feel the weight of your
Gravity, pulling me closer
Losing my sanity, I wanna come over
'Cause your love

Pulling me closer
Pulling me closer
Gravity

Pulling me closer
Pulling me closer...
Pulling me closer

Come and get it
