

Kill Me With Silence

SLANDER

When I'm moving on, I feel better
But I feel the weight and the pressure
And I see the way you look at me
I'm no different oh, no better
But my life is coming together
And you don't seem happy for me

But the words you say, the lies you make
They're breaking me down (breaking me down)
And I'll try to say if I feel betrayed
Your whispers are loud

But you kill me with silence
Silence, oh, Lord, oh
But you kill me with silence
Silence, oh, Lord oh

Silence, silence
Silence, silence

I hear the words you say about me when I'm gone (when I'm gone)
I fall asleep at night and listen through the walls (oh)
If I'm human, then why don't I belong?
If I'm not sorry tell me why do I feel wrong?

But the words you say, the lies you make
Are breaking me down (breaking me down)
And I'll try to say if I feel betrayed
Your whispers are loud

But you kill me with silence
Silence, oh, Lord, oh
But you kill me with silence
Kill me with silence, oh, Lord oh

Kill me with silence
Kill me with silence
Kill me with silence
