

One Life

SLANDER

The minute I saw your face
Was the minute that my life changed
Never feel this way before
I'm suddenly so complete
You're suddenly all I need
And then you're out the door

Halfway across the earth
I can still feel you here
Your soul right next to mine
I'm holding on
Halfway across the earth
I can still feel you here
Your soul right next to mine
I hold on cause we only got one life

I hold on cause we only got one life
I hold on cause we only got one life

I never thought I would find
Somebody who fits just right
It's like we've been here before
I'm suddenly so complete
You're suddenly all I need
But right now our time is short

Halfway across the earth
I can still feel you here
Your soul right next to mine
I'm holding on
Halfway across the earth
I can still feel you here
Your soul right next to mine
I hold on cause we only got one life

I hold on cause we only got one life
I hold on cause we only got one life
