

Suffer

SLANDER

We're not equal, no we're not equal
We're both people, but we're not equal
Not on the inside, 'cause I'm not evil
I just lost myself to all your demons

And I don't wanna let you make me suffer anymore
I don't care, ooh, I don't care who you are
I won't let you break me down anymore
'Cause I'm at war, and never was

Test one of us, man
Then I'll definitely snap man into two
Jack up the tune
I don't wanna talk

Drop the curtain, was it worth it?
How could I ever understand you killed it on purpose?
So when you're lonely (ah-ah), don't forget what you told me (ah-ah)
You're the only reason why I'm not still there

And I don't wanna let you make me suffer anymore
I don't care, ooh, I don't care who you are
I won't let you break me down anymore
'Cause I'm at war, and never was

Test one of us, man
Then I'll definitely snap man into two
I don't wanna talk
I don't wanna talk
Jack up the tune
Snap man into two
