

Hard For You

Slank

I just need to get home
I'm boring on the road
But I still have to go
To do something for a better world

But I don't want You to know
That I'm crying hard for You
I don't want You to know
That I'm missing hard for You

Maybe someday we'll be together
And I'll never ever let You alone
You and I will make love forever
And I promise you
I'll never been gone anymore
